Since February last, when Mr.A.Subramanya Iyer was sent out to act as Deputy Commissioner of Kadur District, the office of Muzrai Superintendent has been vacant, one of the Under-Secretaries (Mr.T.Ramaswamayya) being placed in charge of the Muzrai Superintendent's office in addition to his duties. This arrangement - which was probably originally meant to be only temporary and for a short time - was found to be not conducive to efficiency or despatch of work; and it was therefore brought to the notice of His Highness by the late Dewan in August last, with a view to a separate officer being appointed for the Muzrai Superintendent's place. It was thereupon ordered by His Highness that the question of combining the office of Muzrai Superintendent with that of the Registrar of Co-operative Societies might be considered and submitted for orders. The question was then considered in Council with the result that the Council was unanimously of opinion that the offices of Muzrai

In submitting the papers for the orders of His Highness, the late Dewan expressed his agreement with the Council about bringing back Mr.Subramanya Iyer for the place after without prejudice to his emoluments - present and prospective - in the Deputy Commissioner's grade; and stated that as the alternative temporary arrangements suggested by the Council would, while manifestly temporising, involve the supersession of some of the senior officers, the present arrangement might be continued till the Dusserah and the Representative Assembly were over and that meanwhile, the Muzrai work - such as could afford to wait for a month or two - might be allowed to lie over. The Dewan's proposal was approved by His Highness on 16th Sept: 1912.

The Dusserah and the Representative Assembly have since come and gone. The question of relieving Mr. Hemmingway of the additional work thrown on him and of appointing a whole time Muzrai Superintendent still remains unsettled and demands urgent consideration.

Two notes,, one by Mr.Ramaswamaiya and the other (with a draft order attached) by Mr.D.M.Narasinga Rao on the question of combining the offices of the Muzarai Superintendent with that of one of the important Head of Departments are submitted. Mr.Narasinga Rao's note has special reference to the combination of the offices of Muzarai Superintendent and Inspector General of Police.

A draft of Govt Order appointing Mr.C.Srikantesvara Aiyar as Muzarai Superintendent in addition to his duties as Inspector General of Police is also submitted as personally directed by the Dewan.

In his note, Mr.Ramaswamaiya has pointed out the chief objections to the combination of the offices of the Muzarai Superintendent with that of one of the Heads of Departments. Reference is also respectfully invited in this connection to Mr.Maconochie' letter dated 16th July 1908 wherein the grounds are explained on which His Highness then considered it necessary to have for the Muzarai Superintendent's place a separate full-time officer of the status of not less than a Senior Assistant Commissioner.

Note

Re, the feasibility of combining the appointment of Muz. Supdt with that of the Head of one of the other departments of the State

The existing arrangements for the work of the Muzrai deptt are set out in detail in Govt Order* No. G. 1600-39/G M. 1-08-2 dated 7th Sept/08. The Muzrai Supdt is in executive as well as administrative charge of the department and, as a measure intended to avoid unnecessary duplication of work, he is also in charge of the Secretariat work, being ex-officio, an Under Secretary to Govt. The D.C.s of Districts and subject to their control Sub D.C. offrs and Amildars

* Spare copy put up.

are responsible for the Mufrai administration of their respective charges.
The powers of inspection and inquiry of the Mufrai Supdt are co ordinate with those of Dr Courts, and where the Dr Courts do not agree & with him in respect of any of his suggestions, they are required to submit the matters for the orders of Govt.

Now, if the Secretariat work of the Mufrai Supdt is separated, and the appointment is confined to the executive and administrative charge of the Deptt, there seems to be no insuperable objection to the appointment ~~confined~~ combined that of any other

Head of a Deptt. The following points will require consideration in connection with such a combination of appointments.

i) It has to be made sure that the existing work of the Head of the Deptt will allow of ~~the~~ a fairly substantial addition of work to it, and that the nature of the work of the two deptts harmonize to some extent. The Heads of deptts that may be thought of suitably are the Revenue Commr and the Excise Commr. The Mysore deptt may more fittingly be entrusted to the former ± though, having regard to the amount of work in the deptts, the latter may probably be better able to take it up.

ii) The present designation of Mugrai Supdt' will probably be required to be changed to "Mugrai Commr." owing to the higher status of the Head of the other department.

I don't think this is necessary.

iii) The most material change that will be required will be in respect of the relative powers of the Dy Comrs and the Head of the Depts. It will not perhaps be expedient to make the Dy Comrs wholly subordinate to the Head of the Depts in Mugrai matters, particularly if the Excise Commr is entrusted with the work. The other alternative will therefore be to adopt the system in vogue in the Police, Forest or Excise Depts where the Police the Forest Asstts. or the District

The powers & duties of Dy Dept' Comrs may remain as defined in Sec 7 - - - & need not be altered in this is unnecessary

WR

Excise Officer is more or less directly responsible to the Head of the Deptt, all reports from them, however, passing through the Dy Comr, who is also at the same time responsible for the general administration of the District in those Deptts. In the same manner, the Asstt. Commr holding the most-important Revenue Division charge in the district may be entrusted with the Magn work of the whole district, most of the powers ~~of~~ now exercised by the Dy Comr being transferred to him, and the correspondence between himself and the Head of the deptts passing through the Dy Comr who will also, of course, exercise a general control over the work in the district. This will necessitate some changes in the matter of Establishment, Custody of records &c, but they are details which may be settled if the principle and the system indicated are approved.

It may perhaps be mentioned that no such material changes as those explained above will be required if the Mugrai Supdt's duties are transferred to some officer who holds a Co-ordinate rank with the Dy Comrs, e.g. the Registrar of Co-operative Societies. The powers and duties of the Mugrai Supdt as defined in the G.O. of Septr/08 may be transferred en bloc to Registrar, and no is likely to result from it, as the status of the two officers is more or less the same.

There is however one serious drawback in an Asst Comr being entrusted with the ~~whole~~ work of the whole District. The touring of such an officer is confined to the division in his charge and there will be no opportunities for his inspection and supervision of the Mugrai institutions in the other Talugs not belonging to his division. Tours in these Talugs will have to be specially undertaken for mugrai matters, and burdened as he is with his Criminal Court-work and the revenue inspection of his own division, he is not likely to find the requisite ~~time~~ time to tour out of his division.

Relegating the Mugrai work of the Districts to the Excise Officers, presuming that the Excise Comr takes the depts in his charge, is another alternative But it is not likely to find favour owing to the great dissimilarity in the nature of ~~diffe~~ the duties of the two charges.

iv). In addition to the arrangements indicated under iii), the management of the 9 institutions enumerated under item 17 in Part II of the Appendix to the G.O. of Sept/08, which involves a fairly large amount of work, will have to be undertaken directly by the Head of the Deptt selected. Among these institutions, the management of the Chubbaram extensive at Tirupathi, and of the Vijayaraghavaswamy Matt properties outside the State entail a certain volume of correspondence and demand some considerable attention on the part of the Officer in charge.

The points indicated above being settled, there would, as already stated be no objection to the Combination of the appts.

But it is at the same time necessary to note how the arrangement may prove to be disadvantageous in one or two respects.
To whomsoever the Imperial duties may be attached, it is most likely that that Officer will consider such duties as belonging to his office only in a secondary manner, and the interests of the Imperial deptt may thereby suffer to some extent.
The nature of the duties of this deptt are not such as would attract the earnest attention of an Officer who has the work of a far more important and department

in his charge. It is because an independent Officer has, up to the present been placed solely in charge of this department (Muzrai) that its affairs are being conducted in a satisfactory manner, so far as may be, and prompt measures taken in cases of mismanagement brought to notice. There appears to be undoubtedly a danger of supervision becoming somewhat lax, and of matters being, to some extent, allowed to drift by the abolition of the Office of Muzrai Supdt as an independent Office, the institutions directly under the charge of that Officer being perhaps the most likely ones to suffer to a greater degree than the others The removal of the direct powers of control and close supervision of the Muzrai institutions in the Districts by the DJ Courts is not also a measure conducive to the effective administration of the local Muzrai affairs. There is, finally, considerable danger of the Muzrai Deptt, with its largely endowed religious and charitable ~~institutions~~ institutions, and its possibilities for good, being relegated, even ~~further~~ more than at present, to a very secondary place among the Deptts of the State.

I fully agree with the views Expressed in this para

Note on Munzrai Arrangements.

Alternative arrangements tried.

1 Within recent years various alternative arrangements such as the following were tried by the Government in the Munzrai Department with the view of discovering the most suitable one: viz

(a) Deputy Secretary in charge of Munzrai matters with powers of inspection.

(b) Whole time Munzrai Secretary with powers of inspection.

(c) Munzrai Superintendent and Ex officio Under-Secretary to Government in the General and Revenue Departments.

Existing arrangement. Its policy & objects

2. The last arrangement was sanctioned in the Govt. order of 7th September 1908, its cardinal features being described in detail in the same. The policy enunciated therein is the growth of several decades of experience, its chief merits for the purposes of this Note being as follow:—

(a) To open the way for a very substantial decentralization of powers devolving upon the Govt in Munzrai matters. Hence twenty powers of a very responsible character were conferred on the Munzrai Supt, which he could exercise independently of the Govt. (Part-II of the order).

Essentials of any change

3. Any change that may deserve consideration ought to be capable of promoting the five purposes mentioned in the preceding para as fixing the pronounced policy of the Government in the Mewrai Department. In other words, it should involve a minimum disturbance of the organic character of the 1908 arrangement; and at the same time, distinctly promise better results.

Three changes considered

4. In the light of these salient considerations, the proposal to delegate the powers and duties of the Mewrai Supt. (ex officio) in bloc to the Head of any of the existing Departments of State business may be briefly examined. Here, only three such need be considered vs the Revenue Commissioner, the Excise Commissioner and the I. G. of Police Delegation to Rev Comm^r in expedient.

5. The delegation of the work to the Revenue Commissioner will be inexpedient for the following reasons:—

(i) As the Directing Head of the most important Department of Land Revenue, he may unwittingly throw the Deputy Commissioners into shade: (The third object will be frustrated).

(ii) The late Revenue Commissioners have often complained of heaviness of work in their annual & other reports; and Govt. were obliged to relieve the Revenue Commissioner of the Annual Committee work and the Exhibition business, for instance.

(iii) The Revenue Commissioner's Administration Reports show that much less than what is expected of the Rev Commr in the important directions of inspection and supervision is being done.

Hence this alternative would seriously interfere with the powers of the 1909 arrangement and further affect the utility of the Revenue Commr as such.

Delegation to Excise Commr also inexpedient.

6. The second alternative of tacking on the duties & powers of a Nizamat Supt. to the Excise Commissioner, similarly appears to be undesirable. Objections, different from those concerning the first, would operate in this case. It is enough to state that the combination of Excise and Nizamat would be, at least, repugnant to popular ideas. Besides, the need recently for a whole-time Excise Commissioner has been seriously doubted by the Retrenchment Committee & the question is under investigation by the Govt.

Delegation to D.G. of Police — best course in the present circumstances. —

I am afraid his objections lodes [illegible] your Enquiry in the case [illegible] D.G. Police also [illegible].

I therefore [illegible] I can [illegible] he has [illegible] suffrers were [illegible] to do

But the objections prevailing against the first two alternatives are absent in the case of the third. The D.G. of Police is a permanent training officer of the Govt, coming in frequent & close contact with not only the Deputy Commissioners but also the Govt. He has not complained to the Govt. of hindrance in his work as far as is ascertainable in the Secretariat. The delegation of this work to him would promote the objects of the 1908 arrangement in the following manner: —

(a) Under the arrangement made in 1908, the Supt of Munsiri (ex officio Under-Secretary) has not been exercising his powers of disposal in the hitherto matters delegated to him. (Part II of the order). They are submitted to Govt with the views of the Supt. and thus the volume of business in the Govt. office is not curtailed. (Vide App B - Board Note) Why? Because, the powers seem to be so responsible in character as to require a Senior officer to exercise them with confidence. Even a junior officer as Munsiri Supt alone would probably have exercised them independently; but his ex officio status as Under Secretary perhaps led to a difference on his part in addition of course to personal predilections, if any. By the adoption of the third alternative

therefore the first object of pleasure decentralization would be assuredly attained

(b) This would in no manner interfere with the exercise of powers by Deputy Commissioners as per Part I of the 1908 order.

(c) An authority co-ordinate with that of the Deputy Commissioners is brought & the provisions of 1908 may stand. This position will be somewhat analogous to that of the Forest Conservator

(d) Some economy of time and labour will result in touring as the D. C. of Police has to tour largely in the interior where Panchayat institutions exist. With the local knowledge thus gained, the efficiency of a Senior officer's advice may reasonably be looked upon as greater, other things being equal.

(e) But the policy of giving them the status & duties of a Secretariat officer requires a slight modification. Because, it is the work at the Secretariat office table that has, in the past, chiefly stood in the way of both efficiency & sufficiency of inspections of the Panchayat institutions. (vide Appendix A to this Note for statistics about inspections) At the same time it is desirable, if feasible to avoid duplication of work. I consider that this is easily possible by a special system of consultation the ex officio Munzrai officer in Govt. matters.

His details may be worked out in due course but it may be here indicated what its main principles might to be :——

(a) The system of the present unofficial consultation with suitable modifications of a minor nature will be adopted in consulting him.

(b) He shall be consulted in all matters which go up for orders to the Member in charge of the Munzrai Department, or to him & the Dewan, or to the Council or to His Highness the Maharaja.

(c) The other cases which must be of a routine or very minor importance, fall to the General & Revenue Secretary who disposes of them in conformity with the practice of the Department

(d) Papers will be received, registered and worked up in the Munzrai Branch here as usual; and the files coming under (b) will be sent to the ex officio officer for noting before submission to Govt. Member or Members.

(e) He can call for any papers from the Branch directly.

(f) He tenders his advice in the light of local knowledge he has or will earn & the matter goes up to the Member through the General of Revenue Secretary who can add any observations he thinks fit.

(g) The management of the Secretariat Branch will rest with the Secretary as now who will be responsible for the issue of the orders of the Govt.

(h) The Mussoorie Supply Office being under the same roof, the movements of files between it and the Mussoorie Branch of the Secretariat are simplified. The files will be sent up to the Mussoorie Office to camp when he is on tour

If the DSP is also on tour at the same time, his Labour Office will have to be shifted to his DSP's Office & cannot remain in the same roof as the Secretariat

These are the main proposals & I am capable little difficulty in developing a complete scheme on these lines.

Main conditions of the new arrangement, if any.

8. In any case the revised arrangement to be adopted by the Govt. ought to possess elasticity, to secure which the following considerations require due weight at the hands of the Govt:—

With a view to obtaining even more responsible & efficient advice than that possible under the arrangement of 1908, the following suggestions may be taken into consideration :—

(i) The designation of the Munzai Supt. to be changed into "Munzai Adviser".

I think there is no need to change the designation. If at all it is to be changed, it may be as "Munzai Communications"

(ii) The delegation of the duties & powers of the Munzai Supt to such Adviser, as defined in the order of 1908.

(iii) Such Adviser to be ex officio, his selection being made by the Govt. from time to time out of the Heads of Departments and other Provincial officers with due regard to the capacity for work of individual officers and the conditions of public business.

(iv) He shall cease to be an officer on the Staff of the General and Revenue Secretariat, but a special office system of consulting him in Govt. cases will be adopted.

(v) In all other respects the order of 1908 will remain in tact: and he will have the office of the Munzai Supt.

New arrangement, if any, necessarily experimental in character

I fear it will.

9. The delegation of the powers & duties of the Munzai Dept, under the proposed plan, is necessarily experimental in its character in a few respects viz —

(i) whether it involves too much addition to the ordinary work of the D.G of Police

(ii) whether the requirements of the Police Munzai urgencies can be met-

I have considerable doubts about it - without serious difficulty or inconvenience.

+(iii) Whether the longer duration of the tours to be undertaken by this officer will lead to unreasonable delay in the disposal of Govt. cases?

10. I regret that the Watchsheets necessary for throwing light upon the above points are not readily available here and there is no time for gathering them, the note being required at once.

Submitted to the Secretary as personally instructed.

Submitted to His Highness.

With reference to para 5 of my submission note No.1048 dated 22nd February, regarding the appointment of Mr. G. Aravamudu Iyengar as officiating Muzrai Superintendent in Mysore, I submit for favour of approval, the draft of an order directing that, for the consideration of the more important questions affecting the Department and the alterations or improvements necessary in the administration of Muzrai institutions, Mr. C. Srikantesvara Aiyar, Inspector General of Police, and Mr. G. Aravamudu Iyengar should constitute themselves into a Committee and submit a joint report with definite programmes for practical action for the next 3 and 10 years, respectively, for the orders of Government.

2. The First Councillor has stated that the draft might be sent up to me as he was not aware of the arrangement to entrust Mr. Srikantesvara Aiyar with this work in association with the Muzrai Superintendent.

3. There was at one time a proposal to recommend the appointment of Mr. C. Srikantesvara Aiyar as Muzrai Superintendent in addition to his present duties and that view had also the approval of both the Councillors. Subsequently, the appointment of Mr. Aravamudu Iyengar as officiating Muzrai Superintendent was also approved by both the Councillors. But the association of Mr.C.Srikantesvara Aiyar in the manner proposed in my note of 22nd February, was my own idea, and at the time of making this proposal along with the one for the appointment of Mr.G. Aravamudu Iyengar, I had no opportunity of meeting the Councillors and had to send up the proposal without obtaining their consent.

4. As, however, the present proposals do not involve any new appointment, and the report of the Committee will necessarily come before the Councillor in charge of the Muzrai portfolio, the draft may be approved.
